The advertisement for SwimPro performance analysis cameras features a blue background with a white wave logo at the top left. The text "SWIMPRO performance analysis cameras®" is prominently displayed. Below this, several SwimPro camera models are shown, including a large one with a long pole and a smaller one. A laptop and a tablet are also depicted, showing video footage of swimmers. Three speech bubbles highlight key features: "live wireless", "delayed playback", and "USB download". A grid of icons lists various specifications: Below water, Above water, Multi-directional, 30m/98ft cable, Floor mount, Wall mount, Ultra-flex head, Telescopic pole, Multi angle, Huge 600TV line camera, 4Cam DVR, and Multi-view. Logos for Apple, Android, and Windows are also present. At the bottom, a row of images shows swimmers in action. A quote at the bottom reads: "...the most flexible & robust video training package on the market." Below this, it says "Check out our website for demos, coaches' tips and more information on all SwimPro products and services!" and provides the website "swimmingcam.com". A hand is shown holding a tablet displaying a swimmer's video.
